Petersbourg, September 14, O. S.

THE Six Dantzick Deputies arrived here the 6th Inſtant, but have not yet had their Audience of her Czariſh Majeſty. They have applied to his Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter, and other Foreign Miniſters, to uſe their good Offices in endeavouring to procure ſome Abatement of the Sum agreed upon by the Capitulation. Five Ruſſian Men of War and two Frigates, commanded by Vice-Admiral Snaren, are ſail'd from Cronſtadt for Revel, where they are to winter, to be in Readineſs to put to Sea early in the Spring, in Caſe of Need. M. de Leſtang, whom the French Court has ſent hither with a particular Commiſſion, has had an Audience of the Czarina.

Milan, Sept. 25, N. S. On the 22d Te Deum was ſung here for the Victory obtained by the Allies over the Imperialiſts the 19th. Six Thouſand Recruits are arrived in this Dutchy for the French Troops. A few Days ago a Grand Council was held here to deliberate upon Means for raiſing the neceſſary Money, in order to pay regularly the Duty called the Diaria.

Mantua, Sept. 29, N. S. Count Konigſegg paſſed the Po the 26th Inſtant near Borgoforte, and encamped in the Seraglio. We have Advice that the Army of the Allies has likewiſe paſſed that River near Guaſtalla, to oppoſe any Enterprize of the Imperialiſts on the Side of the Oglio: Theſe laſt have been joined by the Croations and a Party of this Garriſon, who ſet out four Days ago: They have likewiſe received 2000 Recruits, and expect as many more, who are already arrived in the Tyroleſe; and it is aſſured that ſome Imperial Regiments are on the March hither from the Auſtrian Countries. Count Konigſegg ſeems to have a Deſign of continuing the Campaign during the whole Winter. The Imperialiſts are ſtill in Poſſeſſion of Mirandola, Quiſtello, and Rovere. General Valparaiſo, and Major Spiltz, Knight of the Teutonick Order, died the 27th of their Wounds, received in the Battle at Guaſtalla.

Vienna, Oct. 2, N. S. The Court has ſettled all the neceſſary Means for putting Count Konigſegg in a Condition to continue the Operations of the Campaign during the Winter in Italy. Orders have been ſent to the Auſtrian Dominions, to furniſh in a certain limited Time 2233 Recruits, which are ſaid to be deſtin'd for Italy; and it is alſo aſſured, that the Court has lately concluded a Treaty with ſeveral Princes of the Empire for Troops, which are likewiſe to be ſent into that Country.

Heidelberg, Oct. 8, N. S. It is believed that the Troops which are ſtill incamped near this City, will not break up till they ſhall receive Advice that the French have cauſed a Part of their Army to paſs the Rhine. The laſt Advices from Wirtemberg and the Black Foreſt are, that the Inhabitants had put themſelves under Arms to prevent the French from penetrating farther; and that General Petraſch, who obſerves the Motions of the French, had been reinforced by ſome regular Troops.

Francfort, Oct. 10, N. S. His Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange ſet out the 8th Inſtant from Heidelberg, and came to Manheim the ſame Day. His Serene Highneſs comes this Day to Mentz, and To-morrow he is expected in this City in his Way to Holland.

Hague, Oct. 15, N. S. According to the laſt Advices we have here from Italy, the Imperialiſts were in the Mantuan, having ſent their Horſe behind the Mincio for their better Conveniency of Foraging; that Part of the
